

BARTENDING 201

Job Training for Restaurant Workers

The Restaurant Opportunities Center Bay Area (ROC-the Bay), a local worker advocacy and training organization, is adding an Advanced Bartending course to our series of front-of-house fine-dining & hospitality training courses.

Oct 3 - Nov 14

Every Tuesday

10am-2pm

Plum Bar

2216 Broadway, Oakland

Tuition: $20-$100 Sliding Scale
~No one denied for lack of funds~

Requirements to be eligible to take the class:

- 6 months relevant industry experience (barback, server or bartender)
- Has graduated from Bartending 101
- Ability to pass the written test form Bartending 101
- Ability to perform the following duties behind the bar:
 - Garnish prep, juicing, dishwashing, shaking cocktails, stirring cocktails, fluency with different types of jiggers

Bartending 201 will cover in depth knowledge of spirits and mixology. This hands-on class will also provide opportunities for students create their own cocktails as well as attending "field trips" to local distilleries and breweries to speak with the experts.

To pre-register please contact Sophia Miyoshi:
sophia.m@rocunited.org

510-761-7622

900 Alice Street, Suite 300 - Oakland, CA

Visit us on Facebook to learn more about Service
101, Service 201,
Bartending 101 and
ESL for Restaurant
Workers.

rocunited.org/roc-bay * facebook.com/ROCbayarea